PFAS-Free Declaration

At Sileather, we are committed to providing high-quality, innovative materials while prioritizing environmental sustainability and safety. In line with our dedication to meeting the highest standards of product safety and environmental responsibility, we are pleased to inform you that all our products are free from PFAS (Per- and Polyfluoroalkyl Substances).

PFAS are a group of human-made chemicals that have raised concerns due to their potential adverse health effects and persistence in the environment. By ensuring that our products are PFAS-free, we aim to contribute to a cleaner, safer, and more sustainable future for our customers and the planet.

Our dedication to product safety and sustainability extends throughout our manufacturing processes, from sourcing raw materials to the production of our final products. We continuously strive to uphold the highest standards of quality and environmental responsibility in everything we do.

Thank you for choosing Sileather as your trusted partner for premium materials. We look forward to our continued collaboration towards a more sustainable and environmentally conscious future.
